

CLEATED & SIDEWALLED CONVEYORS

mit-mol Cleated & Side walled belt conveyors are commonly used to control product on a horizontal or steep incline conveying. The key attributes for these conveyors are the accuracy of the cleat spacing and durability of the cleat in the application.

We the largest selection of cleats for cleated belt systems, including different heights and cleat angles. Also available are unique sidewall belts that, when combined with cleats, form a product pocket on the belt that prevents product spillage. This endures more consistent and efficient movement for the product. Cleated Conveyor Belt Options.

Cleats come in a variety of sizes, shapes and can even be applied on an angle for improved product control.

- Horizontal or Inclined: Belt width up to 1500mm .
- Conveyor Belts: PVC, PU, and modular plastic link belts also available
- Open OR Fully Enclosed Design available.
- Construction materials: Painted mild steel , powdercoated , & stainless steel, option available

Z-Frame

Horizontal to Incline

Walk - Thru

Nose Over

